Flights

To travel to Molde, you first need to go to Oslo (Europe-Oslo-Molde), then on to Molde. Oslo has routes from all cities in Europe. Molde is a small rural city and there are two airlines providing flights from Oslo to Molde: Norwegian (normally the cheapest) and SAS.

Another option is to go “Europe” - Bergen - Molde, but usually it takes more time.

Train

If you want a more adventurous journey, we recommend taking the train from Oslo Airport to Åndalsnes. Then you will get to experience Romsdalen with its steep mountains. The most famous is Trollveggen. From the train station at Åndalsnes there is a bus service to Molde. It takes more time but could be worth experiencing.

Bus/taxi

Molde Airport is located about 5 km east of Molde city center and the taxi is located outside the main building at the airport.

Bus 701 stops at the central bus station. From the bus station it is walking distance to all hotels.
